Information Security Management System
ISO/IEC 27001:2022

SomaLogic, Inc.

A-LIGN Compliance and Security, Inc. certifies that the organization operates an Information Security Management System that conforms to the requirements of ISO/IEC 27001:2022. The scope and boundaries of the ISMS is as follows:

SomaLogic is a life-sciences company engaged in proteomics analysis. Individual samples are collected by customers and transferred to SomaLogic for processing in a wet lab before custom software analyzes the results of the wet lab data. The scope of the SomaLogic ISMS will address the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of the order management process, software processing of samples using an in-house developed tool, and subsequent analysis of the results for delivery to customers. This includes the tracking and current state of samples, as well as the return of reports to customers.
